

January 4, 1938.

Mr. Charles P. Orchard,
3914 No. Union Blvd.,
St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Orchard:

A couple of months ago Glenn Catman and I were playing a game of golf at the Country Club and Glenn mentioned the fact that he had the pleasure of meeting you when he came back from the U. S. Amateur at Pittsburgh. He was delighted with his visit because it gave him much pleasure at the attention you showed him.

Mr. Irving Hill, our mutual friend who is the president of the Jayhawk Paper Company and also president of the Lawrence National Bank, and I have always taken a great interest in Glenn Catman from the time he was in high school. He is a fine boy and we want to see him get along well.

I have many good friends in St. Louis - Branch Richey, Jimmy Conzelman, Dr. Dwerhardt, and Artie Eilers are all good friends of mine and I cherish their acquaintance very much. Charlie Seymour, the manager of A. G. Spalding Brothers, was formerly a Spalding salesman who made our town. I am sure that you have gotten acquainted with Charlie. If you haven't you should because there is nothing that he will not do for you if you but let him know. I do not believe Charlie is a great golfer, but he is a swell fellow to know when you are in need of any athletic help.

This letter has no particular point only to let you know how delighted Glenn Catman was with his visit with you and how much he appreciated your many courtesies to him. Glenn is a graduate of the University of Kansas School of Business, and I am hopeful that he can use golf as a favorable introduction to business and society.

With all good wishes for a very prosperous New Year, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
