

Why Do Children Like Nursery School?

The wide choice of games, toys, and play equipment

The fun of "playing" with paints, clay, crayons

The thrill of storytelling hour and of singing and musical games

The "belongingness" resulting from using the specially designed tot-sized furniture—tables, chairs, lockers, cupboards, and cots.

The special delight in always having "someone to play with."

Why Do Parents Like Nursery School?

They can confidently leave their children during working hours, knowing they are enjoying these advantages:

Carefully supervised outdoor play

Nutritious well-planned meals

Playmates their own ages and "loads" of play space and toys

Regular and frequent rest periods

Encouragement of good health habits
