

FORT RILEY, KANSAS

month after their training. I find it the best policy to learn all I can while I can because it will all eventually benefit me in the long run. It doesn't take long for the Army to pick out slackers, and it seems as though those fellows always have the extra details. Right or wrong, do something, is the motto here.

Doc, I would appreciate it if you would ask Earl Faulkenstone to order me a blanket for the past basketball season. Please have him mail it to my home, 6538 Jefferson St., K.C., Mo.

I have got to go on guard duty now so I'll close. Say hello to Dean and the rest of the fellows for me.
