

The Barnes Dollar Sports Library

This new sports library will be welcomed by all regardless of their experience. Each volume will deal with one sport and will be written by a recognized authority in that sport. Each will present basic and fundamental elements of the game as it is played today. These books will be priced at one dollar each so as to be available to all players and coaches who want practical advice on their particular game in the form of an essential handbook.

BETTER BADMINTON

By CARL H. JACKSON and LESTER A. SWAN

A complete guide to this popular game. The court, equipment, the game, serving, faults, scoring, and other elements are discussed for the beginner and practiced player. The official rules are included.

BASEBALL

By DANIEL E. JESSEE, M.A., Baseball Coach, Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

All the fundamentals of the game are explained. Each position is fully discussed in pitching, catching, first base, second base, shortstop, third base, outfield play, batting and bunting, base running, signals and team play.

MODERN METHODS IN ARCHERY

By NATALIE REICHART and GILMAN KEASEY, both of Oregon State College

Equipment and its care, target shooting, events, tournaments, and other phases of this ancient sport are treated with interest and practical simplicity. National Archery Champion twice in succession, Mr. Keasey credits his achievement to "the relaxed method" which is the principle followed throughout this book.

Each Volume is fully illustrated, bound in cloth and priced at $1.00 per copy.
