Tales ^{the} of Yester years

THE WAY OF THE GAME

Now summer goes and to-morrow's snows
Will soon be deep;
And skies of blue which the summer knew
See shadows creep;
And the gleam to-night which is silver bright
Spans ghostly forms,
As the winds rush by with their warning cry
Of coming storms.

So the laurel fades in the snow-swept glades
Of flying years,
As the dreams of youth find bitter truth
Of pain and tears;
Through the cheering mass let the victors pass
To find Fate's thrust,
As to-morrow's fame writes another's name
On drifting dust.

When I was asked ^{by Major Edwards} to speak at Kinross so soon after the ~~Nebraska~~ ^{Cornhusker} game I ~~was afraid~~ ^{concluded} that my most appropriate remarks would be Oh Shucks
I am ^{not} to speak on a sport as American as the Indian but nowhere near as vanishing.
- 46 years old and strictly American in origin - more persons play and watch basket ball than any sport in the world.
20,000,000 persons play it every year, 8,000,000
more watch it and 60 nations have adopted the sport into their athletic families.
The court game has grown more rapidly than our National debt but the New Yorkers just discovered this four years ago when Red Irish a reformed newspaper man of the big metropolis sold the game to Madison Square authorities and then let the sport sell itself to the New Yorkers.
Mayor Jimmy Walker really was the New York sports promoter. When the depression first hit
New York ^{9 years ago} Walker appointed a sports committee to help the city take care of its less fortunate citizens, a sound and meritorious move.
The court carnivals drew more than 20,000 spectators - altho' Madison ^{Square} holds something less than 19,000
a game

But that fact proved that good basket ball will pack them in.

In 1934 the afore-mentioned Haratio Alger of N. Y. Basket ball, Ned Irish gambled by renting Madison Sq. Garden for eight nights of college basket ball developing the idea of inter-sectional intercollegiate basket ball using the double header idea. He rang the bell right from the start. ~~the~~

The first three years he drew 40000 spectators. ^{this year} The spectators hung on the rafters to watch Johnny Bunn's Stanford Indians humble again Long Island Minors in which 19000 watched the New Yorkers downfall, establishing a new high in attendance in the Garden. Indiana and Kansas are two states in which basket ball stands out. ~~at~~ Monticello,

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

"Holy, Holy, Holy" (The People Standing)

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (The Minister and People)

Our Heavenly Father, who by Thy love hast made us, and through Thy love hast kept us, and in Thy love wouldst make us perfect, we humbly confess that we have not loved Thee with all our heart and soul and mind and strength, and that we have not loved one another as Christ hath loved us. Thy life is within our souls, but our selfishness has hindered Thee. We have not lived by faith. We have neglected Thine inspirations.

Forgive what we have been; help us to amend what we are; and in Thy Spirit direct what we shall be; that Thou mayest come into the full glory of Thy creation, in us and in all men, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR PARDON (By the Minister)

O Lord, we beseech Thee, absolve Thy people from their offenses; that, through Thy bountiful goodness, we may be delivered from the bonds of those sins which by our frailty we have committed. Grant this, O Heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

THE CHORAL RESPONSE

(The ushers may seat the people.)

THE WORSHIP HYMN (The people standing)

THE DECLARATION OF FAITH

The Minister: Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true Church, whose Holy Faith let us now reverently declare.

The Minister and People:

We believe in the one God, maker and ruler of all things, Father of all men; the source of all goodness and beauty, all truth and love.

We believe in Jesus Christ, God manifest in the flesh, our teacher, example and Redeemer, the Savior of the world.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, God present with us for guidance, for comfort and for strength.

We believe in the forgiveness of sins, in the life of love and prayer, and in grace equal to every need.

We believe in the church as the fellowship for worship and for service of all who are united to the living Lord.

We believe in the kingdom of God as the divine rule in human society; and in the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.

We believe in the final triumph of righteousness and in life everlasting.

To the extension of this gospel of life and freedom and joy and power to all people and to all realms of thought and action, we consecrate ourselves. Amen.

Dear Mr. Marble:

I ask your pardon for the delay in answering your letter of April 1. I have been in Minneapolis attending the Central District Physical Education convention, and in Chicago for the National Basketball Coaches Association and the National Rules Body meeting.

I have definitely set aside in my calendar May 23 for the commencement at Troy, and assure you it will be a pleasure to be there. I shall try to arrive at least by 7:30 p.m. so that I may have the privilege of meeting your faculty members.

Thanking you, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Last week at Minneapolis, Minn., at the Central Physical Education Association meeting, the academic educators pointed out the game of Basket ball as a unique medium of education. Both physical educators as well as academic educators repeatedly used basket ball in their graphic illustrations to demonstrate the educable child.

No other game in America has this important preeminence at the present time. Therefore it behooves our University, College, and High School coaches to look well to the rules of our favorite game so that no great physical injury will come to the participants through too strenuous indulgence and abuses. And further, so that we may preserve this game as the paramount educator's medium of our nation, let us keep it an educational sport, amateur in spirit. Basket ball is still a sport not a business. Dr. ^{James} Naismith gave the ~~the~~ sport world a great gift and without monetary consideration. The least that we can do is to carry on. James A. Naismith

We are much concerned in the life of

So let us start with the sand pile age in America - ^{boy city} ^{girl - home} ^{still} Fooling play -

Over here serious play -

From Sand Pile Age to the Gang Age -

Boy is very selfish creature. He ought to want the biggest piece of pie - Pain to lose and joy to win causes him to discipline his body -
He will say no a thousand times to temptation so that he may say "yes" once to victory. The stone that the builders

"Be Somebody." This mother of yours who walked the Golgotha Road and ~~spit~~ ^{has gone} down to the very Valley, the shadow of death - that you might be here, says to you, "Be Somebody. And this Dad who has fought back declining income and increased mortgages for your sake, says to you 'Be Somebody, Dr. Coleman Griffith - Father - ^{decisions} and travel your own highways perhaps alone."

The most lonesome man in these United States of America tonight is the President of our country - It has always been thus. The man or woman in high places has no one to whom to turn for counsel and sympathy -

And so in a lesser way will be, at times, your lonely vigil.

A tired out rail splitter crouched over his tattered books by candle light or by glow fire, at the days end: preparing for his future, instead of snoring or skylarking like his collaborators. Lincoln cut out his path to later immortality - in his spare time.

An under paid and overworked telegraph operator stole hours from sleep or from play at night, trying to crystalize into realities certain fantastic dreams in which he had faith. Today the whole world is benefited by what Edison did, in his spare time.

A down at the heel instructor in an obscure college varied the drudgery he hated by spending his evenings and holidays in tinkering with a queer device of his, at which his fellows laughed. But Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in his spare time -

Henry Ford stood on the corners in Chicago endeavoring to interest investors in his queer device, but men only laughed. Yet in his spare time Henry Ford delivered the small wage earner from economic bondage.

Any creative work is play - Jesus said to a group of men, "follow me and I will make you fishers of men. Their chief work was fishing.

Boys & girls, you, too, have spare time. The person who says I would do such & such a thing if only I had time would do nothing if he had all of the time of the calendar. There is time at the disposal of every human being who has the energy to use it - I say to you - Use it!
