Dear Mel:

I thank you very much for your good letter of the twenty-third instant. I suspected that Don Nickel had already committed himself to Missouri, but I wanted to follow this through on account of Henry Shenk's interest in him.

I am sending you a carbon copy of the letter that I am writing to Jack Leathers.

I am indebted to you for your very thorough and prompt work in regards to these two boys.

With kindest regards and sincerest wishes, I am,

Very cordially yours,
