Joel Hunt, Ex-Bible Pupil, Gets Witte's Job at Wyoming

Laramie, Wyo., March 29 (U.P.) —Joel Hunt, former University of Georgia coach, was named head football coach and chairman of the Wyoming university athletic department Wednesday night by the trustees.

Hunt, a student of Dana Bible's at Texas A. and M., was one of the greatest broken field runners ever produced in the Southwestern conference. He succeeds Willard A. "Dutch" Witte, whose resignation as athletic director will become effective June 1.

ac-
o.
Everett Shelton, long time coach of top ranking Missouri Valley A. A. U. cage teams, was named basket ball mentor.

Together Hunt and Shelton will take over the job which Witte held for the last two years. Witte planned to enter business with his father at Fremont, Neb. Witte played football at Nebraska.

S. C. Calhoun, line coach at Mississippi State and formerly a Louisiana State grid star, was named assistant to Hunt.

Hunt accepted after Harry Gamage, South Dakota coach, rejected the offer. Gamage, former coach at Kentucky, said "terms and conditions" were unsatisfactory.
