

Money spent upon healthful recreation for the youth of both sexes is a wise investment. However from our competitive interscholastic and intercollegiate games has sprung a monstrous spectre that threatens