

-11 c-

~~is not a~~ move at the present time. While athletics have their decided drawbacks they do provide subsidies for many non-paying student activities that could not exist otherwise. The physical education program is supported in large part or almost wholly from the earnings of intercollegiate athletics.