Tuesday, Feb. 20 - play at Kansas State.

Saturday, Feb. 24 - play at Lincoln: leave Friday night, play Saturday, the 24th; go on to Ames, Ia., to play there Monday, the 26th; arrive in Lawrence 8:50 a.m. Tuesday, the 27th.

Monday, March 4th: to Omaha, Nebr., leave Sunday night, play Monday, return to Lawrence at 8:50 a.m. Tuesday, the 5th.

Friday, March 8th - play at Norman, Okla.

If our local University athletic authorities and our Big Six officials would give us permission we would be willing to play the Kansas-Missouri game Friday night, March 1, in the new Kansas City, Missouri, Municipal Auditorium. By this arrangement everyone who desires to see this classic struggle could have an opportunity. I have not contacted the Missouri authorities. This is only our idea of letting everybody in on the game who wants to see it. Our limited space here means that at least five thousand people who desire to see the game will be turned away.

Dear Dr. Allen:

We regret very much to advise that we did not find the red basket ball trousers which one of your players thought might have been left in room #321. We have thoroughly checked with the proper authorities, but should this article turn up later, we will immediately forward it to you. Could he have left them at the Field House on the Campus?

We will be looking forward to your return for the Big Six Track Meet in May, and again regretting the loss, we are

I just talked to Jack Gardner, of Kansas State, over the phone and Jack thought we ought to meet in Kansas City on the 22 and 23, and maybe the 21, so that our schedules could be made and presented to the Coaches Association. I believe this is a good idea.

As far as I am concerned I would be in favor of meeting early so that we could arrange our entire conference schedule while the National Association of Basket-ball Coaches are in session.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation, Varsity Basketball Coach Mr. Karl Klooz, Bursar, University of Kansas.

Dear Marl:

I have a letter from Mr. George Edwards stating that he is taking some additional men with him on the trip from Columbia to Lawrence, Kansas.

The Kansas Aggies carried 14 to Lawrence, and Nebraska carried 14 from Lincoln to Manhattan.

I am merely mentioning this to show you that there is no thought in anybody's mind that if you carried more than 10 you would be fracturing a Big Six rule.

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation, Varsity Basketball Coach.

Dear Harold:

It is pretty early to make selections for the first and second Big Six Conference teams, as our conference play does not and until March 8th.

However, I have listed below two alternatives; the first is based on the assumption that Hansas will win the conference championship; the second list is made if Hansas does not win the conference. I have picked teams rather than individuals, as I am better acquainted with them as teams.

Dear Dr. Allen:

I would greatly appreciate receiving a list of your selections to the mythical first and second All-Conference teams among the basketball players of the Big Six.

If it is convenient for you to do so I would like to receive your selections and a short conclusion as to their choice within the next two weeks.

If there are any players in the Big Six that you consider of All-America caliber would you list them, also, and the reasons for their choice.

With kindest personal regards,

Yours since lely

Dear Harold:

When we played at Lincoln on February 24th we think that Howard Engleman, one of our players, left his basketball trunks in the dressing room of the field house. He failed to find them when he unpacked Sunday morning at Ames, so we presume he left them in the dressing room.

I would greatly appreciate it if you would look into the matter for us, and if they are located have them returned to us.
