

Or, when going through busy intersections the peripheral vision of the driver, often tested in games, is sufficiently strong to avoid collisions. A successful response to an unusual situation is the reward of the winner in athletic contests.

Old England's famous quotation, "That the battle of Waterloo was won on the Cricket Fields of Eaton and Rugby", is still good today. Doubtless the battle of the Bismark will call forth quotations equally famous.

At the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, New York, above the Gymnasium door carved in stone are these words of Major Koehler, "Upon the fields of friendly strife are sown the seeds that on other fields on other days, are borne the fruits of Victory."

All over America in our Universities, colleges, and highschools, we have a great army of American youth who are playing games and as they play, they develop quick reaction and responses which will make them more fit for OUR GREAT DEMOCRACY in time of NEED. A varsity letter on the breast of our American Collegiate means that he has played for fun, and that he has excelled in the laboratory of joyous endeavors. The Nazi plays at war as the American plays for fun.

A broadsword scar on the face of a Nazi is exhibited with pride as is a Varsity letter on the breast of our American athlete.

Our American boys when playing games are playing for sheer fun, but at the same time, they are breathing with their legs. And, as they breathe with these large fundamental muscles they build a stronger body.

Glenn Cunningham, the greatest of all the World's Champion Milers, began as a handicapped boy. The Ideal before him, when he was a little fellow, was clean competition, allowing every boy a just start and a fair finish. We're happy to think that this is our way of life and although handicapped, no impediments are placed in the way of youth. On the other
