Dear Dr. Allen:

We regret very much to advise that we did not find the red basket ball trousers which one of your players thought might have been left in room #321. We have thoroughly checked with the proper authorities, but should this article turn up later, we will immediately forward it to you. Could he have left them at the Field House on the Campus?

We will be looking forward to your return for the Big Six Track Meet in May, and again regretting the loss, we are

Cordially yours,
