Mr. Floyd A. Rowe,
Chairman,
National Basketball Committee,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Floyd:

This will acknowledge receipt of your circular letter of June 29th to the members of the National Basketball Committee in which you say you are sending an article written by Dr. Charles H. Keene. To date this material has not been received by me. I shall be glad to send you my reaction as soon as the copy arrives.

By the way, Floyd, I don't want to trouble you too much, but that research on the high goal has never arrived as yet.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Doctor Allen:

I have your letter of August 23. In view of the feeling expressed by the Rules Committee at your March meeting as to the representation of the committee at the Executive Committee meeting, I am writing Mr. St. Clair asking him to attend our meeting in Chicago next week. I have put this matter on the agenda for Saturday, the seventh.

Looking forward to seeing you at that time.

Sincerely yours,

W. B. Owens,
President.

Dear Mr. Porter:

Are there any more copies of the Special Edition of Basketball Rules for 1940-41, 20¢, available? If so, we should like to have about ten copies.

Some of our students are finding the booklet helpful in their classes.

If you will send us a statement for these copies we will forward a check immediately.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
