Herewith, is a statement of my expenses in connection with the N.C.A.A. tournaments in Kansas City. On my first trip, the hotel clerk at the desk told me to leave my room bill unpaid, as it would be taken care of along with that of others connected with the tournaments. I drove up with Mr. Abb Curtis on my first trip, leaving here Thursday morning, and arriving back Sunday night. The best that I can figure my expenses on this trip, in addition to the room which you took care of, is $27.25. This includes gas and oil for the car and some meals for Mr. Curtis, and my own meals for four days. The round-trip ticket alone on the train, including pullman, is $31.30. On my second trip, I arrived two days before the meeting of the Rules Committee, and I think the expenses of these two days should be taken care of out of the receipts of the N.C.A.A. tournaments. At an average of $5.00 per day, that would total $10.00. The reason I came at that time was to have a conference with Mr. Olsen.

I enjoyed being with you very much, and though you and I might disagree on some policy, we at least express our ideas in the open. I certainly hope that you and Mr. Olsen and Mr. Dole can work out some basis for the distribution of funds that will satisfy everyone concerned, and I think it can be done.
