Mr. Robin McGeorge,
Executive Assistant Manager,
Hotel Continental,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Robin:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th instant, and I am indeed sorry that I did not beat you in. In fact, for over two weeks I have tried every day to get in to see you to make a final settlement of this account. I did run into Kansas City a week ago on Saturday, but by the time I had seen Gene Zachman and Dan Partner, again it was too late to contact you to go over the details of this situation.

I have definitely checked the moot points that I wished to discuss with you and if you will be free in the afternoons of this week it will not be necessary for you to write me. But if you are planning to be out of town any of the afternoons of this week, let me know because I am surely coming in. I am just as anxious, if not more so, to get this straightened up than you are.

I have been teaching regularly and will teach for these next eight weeks of summer school. I have had my administrative work and commencement speeches which have called me as far west as Hill City, Kansas, 330 miles from here, so frankly, Robin, I haven't had much time to go to Kansas City, without conflicting with some of my administrative work. This is the only reason I have not been in. You will remember that I came to you three different times to settle the account, but each and every time you had conflicts on so we couldn't get together. However, I do assure you that we will do it with finality upon this next trip.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
