Dear "Phog":

I am sending you under separate cover another Western Play-off belt buckle, this in addition to the two which should have been shipped to you direct from Herff-Jones. I hope the size is all right. If it isn't I am sure Jones will make the adjustment.

When I stopped in Bloomington the other day, I urged Clevenger to send along to you at once his list of expenses. Inasmuch as he had not paid the railroad bill or the hotel bill I told him I thought you, in the interest of expediting the cleaning up of these matters, would be glad to pay them direct.

I very much hope we can get this whole business straightened out before long and I hope when all the shooting is over that we find we have as good a surplus as we had hoped for. The next thing is for us to battle for what we believe is right in the way of distribution of these funds.

Very sincerely yours,

H. G.
