Dear Doc:—

a letter from went Kyle this morning refuses to release me from his game Feb. 10th he said when he talked with you over the 'phone he thought his game was with Jewell, but when he looked it up and found that it was with Westminster - and probably a championship game - he thought it best not to release me.

Jim Barry. Your game would have been a better trip, better game, and more money.

William Harold Browne

Head Basketball Coach, University of Nebraska

Record crowds, improved team play and individual finesse were only a few of the accomplishments of W. H. Browne, head basketball coach at the University during the 1937-38 season.

This year Coach Browne is starting his seventh season as coach of the Cornhusker basketball team. Browne became associated with the University of Nebraska as freshman basketball and football and head Varsity baseball coach in 1930-31.

In 1932 Browne became head basketball coach and assistant Varsity football coach at Nebraska. In football he was a valuable assistant to Dana X. Bible for five years and the past two seasons performed the same duties for Major Lawrence "Biff" Jones. Browne's work dealt chiefly with the ends but he was of untold value to the team as head scout.

Coach Browne has been a member of the research and visual investigation committee of the National Association for Basketball Coaches and has written an untold number of technical articles on basketball and physical education activities for national publications.

Previous to 1930 Mr. Browne had headed the department of physical education at Lincoln high school for ten years and coached the football and basketball teams.

His football teams lost only three games during that ten-year period, attracting national attention by defeating Lane Tech of Chicago and twice turning back the strong Waite high eleven of Toledo, Ohio.

Browne's high school basketball teams, playing difficult schedules, won better than 75 percent of its games and three times were state champions.

He was born in Port William, Ohio, July 18, 1899. Browne graduated from Morton high school, Richmond, Indiana; attended Earlham College at Richmond and State Normal at LaCrosse, Wisconsin. He was graduated from the American Gymnastic School at Indianapolis, Indiana, with a Bachelor of Physical Education degree and received Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees at the University of Nebraska.

Browne is a captain in the Nebraska National Guard, commanding Headquarters Co., 110th Quartermaster Regiment. He is a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa and Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternities, and Phi Delta Kappa, educational fraternity. He is a Mason, Shriner and Jester. Browne is married and has two children, Dorothy Jean and Billy.

University of Nebraska Basketball Squad

PERSONALITIES

Bill Kovanda, a senior, is one of the fastest men on the Cornhusker squad excelling as a floor man. He won a minor letter two years ago and a major award last season. Was 17th high scorer in the conference last year. Is president of the senior class. Hails from Elk Creek, Nebraska.

Alton Werner played his high school basketball at Frankfort, Kansas. He played a first string guard position last season and in 1936-37 earned a minor letter as a forward. Present home, Kansas City, Kansas.

Robert Elliott is a jack-of-all-trades. Plays guard, center or forward. Comes from a basketball family, his brother Tom having captained the 1927-28 Husker cage squad. Won a B team letter in football two years ago.

Al Randall, 2 6-7 center, weighing 210 pounds, is one of the outstanding sophomore prospects on Coach Browne's squad. Won all state honors and was a member of the Nebraska high school championship Omaha South squad in 1936-37.

Grant Thomas, a Kearney, Nebraska product, won a major letter his sophomore year at a forward position. He is a junior this year and should be a valuable member of the squad. Won all state recognition at Kearney high. President of the junior class.

Harry Pitcaithley, Lincoln, played on the great Jackson high teams of a few seasons back. Had one season at Kearney State college. Is being groomed for a guard assignment. Good floor man and excellent shot.

Don Fitz another ex-Jackson player with a bright future. Stands 6-4 and is an excellent shot. Won all state honors in 1936-37 season.

Bruce Duncan won a B team award last season and has hopes of gaining a varsity berth this year. He is a junior and comes from Broken Bow, Nebraska.

Leonard Van Buskirk came to Nebraska from Worland, Wyoming and is considered one of the best sophomore prospects on the Husker squad. He stands 5-11, weighs 168 pounds and is 18 years old.

Bob Therien, former Bethany high player, earned a B team letter his first season at Nebraska. He was a member of the Class B champion Bethany squad of 1936-37. He stands 6-4 $\frac{1}{2}$ and is a center.

Max Hulbert played his prep school basketball at Havelock high school in Lincoln. Won Greater Lincoln loop honors at a guard position. Hulbert holds a B team letter. He is a junior.

Fred Uhlman, Broken Bow, a sophomore, stands 6-3½ and is bidding for a center berth on the varsity. He is 19 years old and weighs 185 pounds.

Frank Tallman, a Creston, Iowa, lad, won a minor varsity letter last season. He is a forward and stands 6-1.

Bill "Jack" Jackson is another forward candidate with promise. Played on the freshman squad last year but has only two years of competition at Nebraska. Played one season at Omaha U.

Jimmy Taylor, the cleverest ball handler on the squad. A good shot. An all stater from Hastings, Nebraska.

Harry Hopp and George Knight were late in reporting due to football duties. Hopp hails from Hastings and Knight from Jackson high of Lincoln. They play guard.

Irvin Yaffe hopes to graduate into the varsity ranks this season. He won a B team letter last year at a forward position.

Lloyd Grimm, another gridder, is a guard candidate. Won a minor letter two years ago and a major award last season. Played end on the football team. Came from Omaha Benson high.
