

used for free swimming programs.

As civilians we can start making our contributions now in this particular area by providing facilities, equipment, and personnel, without charge, in order that our young men who are entering the service, be not only good fighters but also good swimmers.

Jack Matthews
Co-Director Physical Fitness and Recreation Program
State of Missouri