

Eighty-seven of the 128 schools (68.0%) have swimming facilities, and answers to the questionnaires seem to indicate that much more importance will be placed upon the teaching of every individual to swim.

By

Robert J.H. Kipauth (Director), T. Erwin Blesh and Oscar W. Kiphuth -Department of Physical Education, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.