

THE COVER shows Seabees at Camp Peary climbing a wooden wall by means of scaling ropes. This is one detail of the Navy's comprehensive physical training program. The complete program is outlined in this illustrated article, with information included on the function of each exercise and sport the Navy is using.