

Crawling and squeezing through small openings uses many a muscle that usually rests.

Sides of straddle run resemble heaving decks.

Lame 10 years as boy, this man, after training, set records.

