Mr. A. Martin Kingkade,
Kingkade Hotel,
OklahomaCity, Okla.

Dear Mr. Kingkade:

We will arrive early Saturday morning and there will be about twelve in the party. We will want the usual accommodations for the day time. In the afternoon we will leave for Norman - just our usual trip.

I believe that the menu can be taken care of when we arrive because we take generally the food on the regular menu. We will, of course, want a box lunch or something after the game when we drive back to catch the train at Oklahoma City.

Assuring you that it will be a pleasure to see you again, I am

Very sincerely yours,
