

Raport, James H., Instructor in Physical Education.

Teaching load: 22 hours activity courses, 2 hours theory courses, fall semester; 24 hours activity courses, 3 hours theory course, spring semester.

Committees: University exhibit at National Cornhusking Contest - spent 3 days preparing departmental exhibit. Member of departmental research committee.

Research: Conducting studies in handedness in Indian students; learning of skills in physical education; and method of teaching such skills consistent with our knowledge of such learning.

Coaching: Coach of University swimming team; Coach of K. U. Fencing team, both men's and women's.

General activities: Sponsor of Fencing Club; in charge of faculty fencing group which meets one afternoon a week. Assisted with faculty children's recreational class during fall semester, one hour a week. Assistant to Dr. Elbel on P.A. system at all university athletic events; In charge of decathlon at Kansas Relays; timer at Interscholastic meet at Relays. Passed the Red Cross Water Safety Instructors course (30 hours), and licensed. Supervisor of fencing tournament for Kansas City Sportmen's Exposition, week of May 6-12 (nights 7 to 12 p.m. entire week). Clerk of course for men's and women's intramural swimming meet.

Attended District and State conventions of Physical Education Association, Wichita, Kansas. Attended National convention of American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, Chicago. Appointed to special committee for Research at Central District meeting.