Dr. Forrest C. Allen,
Department of Physical Education,
University of Kansas.

Dear Dr. Allen:

Some time ago you asked each member of the department to write a letter containing proposed requirements for a master's degree in physical education. My suggestions are presented below.

To obtain the degree of master of science in physical education at the University of Kansas, a student should:

1. Complete one year of graduate work.
2. Pass a minimum of 30 hours of credit, all with grade C or better.
3. Write a master's thesis, which might receive from 2 to 4 hours credit.
4. Select all his courses from the upper division and graduate level (courses numbered 100 and above).
5. Have completed all the courses required for a physical education major.
6. Include in his program the following courses:

School of Education

Elementary Statistical Methods	3
Educational Psychology (adv.)	3
School Hygiene	3
Educational Sociology (adv.)	3

Department of Physical Education

Tests and Measurements in Physical Ed.	2
Technique or Methods of Teaching Physical Education Activities	3
Curriculum Construction in Physical Ed.	3
First Aid	2
Problems in Intramural Sports	2
Thesis	2-4
Coaching courses in football, basketball and track (if not already completed)	2-6
At least four different advanced courses in skill sports	4

The importance of learning skill sports well enough to execute and teach them is extremely important for our graduate
