

Our newly formed cadet teaching experiment with the Lawrence elementary schools has complicated and intensified the above problems rather than alleviated them. Even though arrangements be made next year for our student-teachers to teach in the Lawrence junior and senior high schools, I believe the above recommendations would facilitate the conduct of Supervised Teaching in Physical Education in the Lawrence schools as well as in the Oread Training School.

Respectfully submitted,

E. B. DeGroot, Jr.