Mr. A. J. Lewandowski,
Basketball Coach,
University of Nebraska,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Low:

I am certainly in harmony with you when you desire to iron out your transportation wrinkles and at the same time save a little money. I would like to accommodate you, but the fact that we play the University of Oklahoma here on February 26 would throw two of our games so close together that the people here feel it would definitely lose us quite a sum of money to play these two Big Six games one right after the other. Since we have only five Big Six games spread over two semesters it would not be to our financial interest to play under such an arrangement. I am sure that it would cost us more money than you would save. And I am sure that under those conditions you would not want that condition to exist.

We are having a pretty tough time in making things go since we had a very poor football season from the money standpoint and we had no financial reserve to work on. Therefore, we are hard put to make both ends meet. I am sure that you will understand.

Thank you for your holiday wishes. Congratulations on the licking that you gave Iowa. And another congrats on the near win over Indiana. I am especially happy that you licked Iowa because after quite a bit of correspondence we agreed to play a home and home arrangement, but the Big Ten figured that they could call off any of the games where they were traveling but it was all right for any of the Big Six schools to travel to their place. My, what a difference mileage makes when the visitors travel to the Big Ten lair.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
