about T. P.'s death. I'm like you "Doc", I can't believe he is gone and that he is still in there pitching with the rest of us. What a grand fellow he was, too. That's one man you could call a Thoroughbred. I can still see him chewing that gum and trying to bring the whole Kansas team up with those left hand "jab" shots against Green Lakes. Kansas has lost a great fighter, there was never a doubt about that.

I'm still on the receiving end of some good V-mails from Lt. Pfitsch and you can bet they are plenty interesting. He's right in the thick of it with Patton and you need have no fear as to the outcome with that combination on our side. We hope to make a deal together some where when this deal is over, so keep your eyes and ears open Doc. I'm almost ashamed to tell him
