

am sitting up for a short time each day - and I hope to be up ready for ^{work} before too long.

I am glad to have
company at any time -
you know twenty four hours is terribly long for staying in when one has been used to sleeping not more than six and eight hours.

Most sincerely
Ruth Hoover