

57. PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY RECREATION. Three hours credit. Second semester. This course is planned for students interested in recreational leadership, in playgrounds, community and recreational organizations and activities of clubs, such as Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and in the organization, management and equipment of conducting social activities, games, play, etc., with adult groups in community recreation centers. Required of all men majors, elective for women. Elbel.

57. to 100. PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY RECREATION. Three hours credit. This course is planned for students interested in recreational leadership, in playgrounds, community and recreational organizations and activities of clubs, such as Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and in the organization, management and equipment of conducting social activities, games, play, etc., with adult groups in community recreation centers. Prerequisites, three hours of general sociology, and for physical education majors not less than ten hours of physical education.

Approved by School of Education Faculty and Graduate School,
Nov. & Dec., '38