

I don't know whether I have any right to expect any part of it back. Any work that was ever done in their shop on my car, I paid for. I don't dare discuss this with my family for they believe Hubert owes me that money. What do you say? I could use it when Put starts to college even though he intends to help himself some.

It irks me too, when I think that Virginia has always had pretty much what she wanted—while I have really worked and managed to keep our home going— But as long as I have Put & can be proud of him, I'll not complain— So many of Dick's friends are in this war, from Generals on down— & Put. Sr. writes
