

3.

has grown, and I only hope that when parenthood comes to Hoat and us that we can be the sort of parents you and Mother were and are.

That is asking a lot of cats but with you two as examples, we shouldn't go so far afield.

I won't make this much longer, but I want to say this — I hope you can really get to know Hoat when we are home Dad — he holds you in such