SCOPE of SERVICE

The Bureau is here to serve you. Ask your questions freely and as often as you wish. There is no limit to the number of times you may consult the Bureau.

Do not ask the Bureau to send you "all the information available" on the various subjects listed in your certificate. The primary service of the Bureau is to answer specific questions pertaining to these subjects and to advise concerning them.

Do not ask for medical, legal or financial (investment) advice. It cannot be given.

Do not ask to have puzzles solved, or examination papers answered.

Do not ask to have a club paper written for you, or a complete debate. Tell us what your subject is, and we shall be glad to give advice, suggestions and an adequate list of books and articles dealing with your subject which you can consult. Tell us whether you have access to a public library and what reference books you have.

Do not hesitate to send in your questions for fear that they do not come within the scope of the Bureau's service. If they are not answerable by the Bureau, you will be advised, when possible, where to apply for the information you are seeking.

Dear Sirs:

In November, 1934, I purchased from you a set of your TIMES ENCYCLOPEDIA AND GAZETTEER. The guarantee accompanying this purchase states that I am entitled to Times Pictorial Loose-Leaf Service for a period of ten years.

The last Loose-Leaf Supplement I have received is dated July 15, 1935. I am enclosing coupons for each of the supplements since this date, and trust that you will be able to complete this service for me, bringing the supplements up to date.

Very sincerely yours,

FCA:AH
