Dear Jane:

I am sending you an Athletic Association copy of my book, Better Basketball. "The Tales of Yesteryear" in the back of the book are the yarns that I think the girls wanted to read. Please be sure that the girls peruse these fairly early and save the wrapper, because after they have read the stories I am sure they will be through with it and you can mail it back for 6¢. Let's put a limit of Thanksgiving on the use of the book, and tell them it has to be returned by then. I believe the girls will get all the reading that they want by that time.

I told Mother about my buying you the hair brush and the skates, etc. I thought it would be best to let her know. I want you to know how very happy I was to see and be with you. It was a very enjoyable occasion for me and we are looking forward to seeing you on Thanksgiving.

With my kindest regards to all the girls who ate at our table, and with love to you, I am affectionately,

Your Dad,
