

January 21, 1942.

Mr. Don E. Tremaine,
Manager, Hotel Lincoln,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Tremaine:

In unpacking our equipment after returning from our trip to Lincoln and Ames, we came across a hand towel which belongs in your hotel. Doubtless one of the boys overlooked it in the rush of packing, and it remained in one of the bags until we got home. We are mailing it back to you today.

Thanking you for your courtesy during our stay in Lincoln, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
