

Monday afternoon

Dear Dad,

Mother, Eleanor, and I have just returned from a two-day visit to Mitt's Ellinwood domicile. We all had a very good time, and I think Mitt and Isabelle enjoyed having us. Judy seems to have got cuter than ever, if possible.

Mother and Eleanor are in the midst of preparations for their trip to Louisville tomorrow. Eleanor at last talked Mother into going, but I can't possibly see what I could do in Louisville, so I am staying here and holding the fort.

I went over to K.C. to see Ralph Miller as you directed.
