

He seems to be getting along fine and was hobbling around, not even using his crutches. Vic Hurt and Guinn want him to be ready for the O.U. game (the 4th for K.U.), but Ralph is not sure he wants to be ready for that one. Who can blame him? I think Ralph is going to stay with me a few days while Eleanor and Mother are gone.

Thanks for the Sporting News. I devoured it completely in 3 hours. I suppose you have been following the S.L. Cards and, at this writing, find them $2\frac{1}{2}$ games behind the Reds and gaining. Also the Yanks are doing O.K.
