

October 16, 1939.

Coach Arthur "Dutch" Lomborg,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Illinois.

My dear Dutch:

My eldest daughter, Mary Elizabeth (Mrs. L. P. Hamilton), is driving up from Louisville with her husband and two guests for the Northwestern-Wisconsin game Saturday in Evanston and they desire four tickets for the game.

Of course, I could have written Tug Wilson, but it is easier to bother you, Dutch, than it is Tug. I am wondering if you will be kind enough to see that four tickets are left at the Athletic Office in L. P. Hamilton's name. Please send the bill to me and I will remit with a check at once.

I believe that the folks are driving in about Wednesday of this week for some convention and expect to take in the game, so if you will take care of this at your early convenience I will appreciate it very much.

I was sorry to see Lynn have such tough luck this season. I know how that goes because when things sometimes look rosy and especially when newspaper men build you up to dizzy heights, then the unexpected always happens. Please give Lynn my kindest regards and best wishes for an upturn for better fortunes.

With all good wishes to you and Mrs. Lomborg,

I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH