MAGAZINE COVER MODEL FINDS DILEMMA IN CONTRACT.

Lucille Wilds Sues Her Agent for the Right to Get Married Without Paying a Penalty.

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Lucille Wilds, honey-haired model whose pretty face and figure have been seen on many a magazine cover, is uing her agent, Walter Thornton, or the right to get married without paying a $10,000 penalty.

But Thornton insists he won't permit her to get married to Bill Kent of Brooklyn, also a model, uness she pays off.

"I spent two and a half years building her up," Thornton explained, "and I'm not going to lose that time and money."

Lucille's mother, Mrs. Alma Wilds, signed a 6-year contract containing marriage-penalty clause with Thornton in 1937, and the model ratified it when she became of age. Her attorney contends such a clause is "against public policy."

The biggest North American bird, the California condor, is about 5,000 times as large in bulk as the calliope humming bird, which is America's smallest.

HEDGE-HCPPING FLIER LANDS IN A HOSPITAL BED— (Wirephoto).

Emil Hampel, 18-year-old Chicago pilot, rented a monoplane yesterday, skimmed over the tops of motor cars at an altitude of ten feet above the street, broke electric light wires and finally crashed after thirty minutes of dizzy flying. Hampel, critically injured, is shown at the left in a hospital bed; standing beside him is John McNella, deputy sheriff, who sought to question the youth. What's left of the monoplane is shown at the right.

TRUE.

From the Montreal Star.

Mother (trying to help small so with home work)—Now, take the Smith family. There are mamma papa and baby. How many does that make?

Small Son (smart, for once—Two

Physicians can draw on 100,00 drugs in compounding prescriptions

The Home of 10,000 Bargains SPORTING GOODS & 14th-Main—524 Minn.

WHEN A COLD THREATENS YOU

To help prevent colds developing, use this specialized medication at first warning

VICKS at first warning sniffle or sneeze.
VA-TRO-NOL

Now . . you can make even a limited budget include wonderful Food, every meal, every day . . for Myron Green inaugurates a new Policy . . .

Because—a recent test, in the form of Daily Specials, which brought thousands of additional patrons into the Myron Green cafeteria, convinced us thoroughly that people wanted Good Food when it was priced at Modest Figures.

Starting

TOMORROW

here is the kind of values you will see at Myron Green's, day in and day out . . .

BREAKFAST (Tomorrow)

WHICH BRING NATIONALLY FAMOUS
FOODS WITHIN EASY REACH

OF EVERYONE!

"and these dishes listed here are only a few of the many wonder-

