St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Roy:

I am happy to have your communication in bloody red in response to the check. Mrs. Allen got a big charge out of the "way bill" that you mailed.

I wasn't going to take advantage of you by proposing to bet the same amount on the election. Just state to Bill for me that I am proposing to bet you the same amount on Franklin D. to clean house with Wendell L. What do you say, young fellow? You answer for both Bill and yourself, will you?

Cordially yours,
