Dear Fred:

Thanks very much for sending me the sport column of H. G. Salsinger in the Detroit News. I know Mr. Salsinger very well. He is a high grade gentleman and a clean sportsman.

Yes, I would never forget you. The boys on the early teams that I coaches still silhouette in my memory very clearly. I saw Lamar Hoover in the Muehlebach Hotel last week in Kansas City. Lamar is still that fine, personable individual who believes that he is going to make his million some day. He hasn't gotten very well started but he is still optimistic.

I saw Arnett a couple of years ago and hear from him quite often from his home in Washington. I saw Cy Mason several years ago, but have lost track of him, as I have of Sample. Withro was down in Dallas when I saw him and had a fine visit with him. He is doing splendidly. Cub Brainard I cannot locate. Won't you write and tell me where the other boys are? Of course you knew Emil Liston had a very bad accident and he has not responded well at all from the break in his leg that he received a year ago while officiating a high school football game.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
