

Monday a.m. -

Dear Forest,

In "picking up" the library, I find to my great dismay that I gave you the wrong envelope of clippings! Those out-grew the football book I had them in, so I put them in the envelope to save for a book - I want them back! I have the other envelope of clippings here for you.

^{Sister} Your nice letter just came. Thank you for "carrying" Virginia back and thank you, too, for