

January 31, 1945.

Mr. Don H. Pieroe,
Sports Editor,
The Topeka Daily Capital,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Don:

Thanks so much for your letter of the 27th giving me the correction on McClelland, and not McClellan. Yes, sir, this boy must be quite a personality!

Had you been in on the Kansas-Kansas State game last night you would have been prostrated. It was tougher than the Iowa State game and it had the customers swooning in the aisles. Mit has not seen a single Big Six game that Kansas has played, and will not until the 24th, when we play Missouri. His Haskell Indians are keeping him on the move.

Bob was down for the Iowa State game and again for the Kansas State game. He trades with other internes, and does a good job in getting away for the evening, but goes back immediately after the game, or soon thereafter.

Certainly I wish you every good luck in your Daily Oklahoman relationship. If there is anything at any time that I can do to further your welfare, please feel free to call upon me.

And by the way, where are all the nice Fauntleroy coaches who said that I had lost faith in American youth, and so forth and so forth? They are all jumping on the bandwagon now and want to prosecute the gamblers, as if these Simple Simons didn't know the truth before.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH