

Do miss our long talks, but maybe we can get caught up some day. I do hope that we will have an opportunity soon -

Try thanks for your interest - Forrest - and if these things can be done without placing you under any obligations; fine - but please don't do anything that will obligate you in any way -

Now for other business -

In all the kingdom there is no pigskin for the binding of your book - So - I'm having the back done in red
- but saving the pig skin back in case you don't like it red - The binding was to be extended at least 1 in to allow for greater space -
