

Benefits

Your attention is particularly directed to existing instructions regarding benefits, ARC 527 and CS-RC of June, 1943

As decisions are made, you will be informed in order that your chapter preparations may keep pace with this national planning. If we approach next March with definite plans and well developed organization, our effort will have the wholehearted response of the American people.

Very truly yours,

H. F. Keisker
Manager