

March 14, 1942.

Mr. Earl Jones,
A. G. Spalding Bros. Athletic Goods Co.,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Earl:

Will you please inflate two Spalding Lastbilt DL balls and two Spalding stitched balls and deliver them to us either at the Muehlebach or at the Auditorium on Tuesday? Charge them to the combined account of the Oklahoma Aggies and Kansas, and we will pay for them out of the proceeds of the game at the Auditorium.

We are coming in on Monday afternoon, but of course will not want the balls until Tuesday. Kindly inflate the balls to the proper poundage so the resiliency will be the same. I talked to Henry Iba this morning and he asked if we would have the balls ready.

Very sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.