The family that plays together stays together, claims Mrs. Anne Livingston, of the National Recreation Association.

Games and More games for children - for teen agers - for adults - are featured in fun classes at the Wartime Recreation Training Institute in Robinson Gymnasium every evening this week.

Are you having a party soon, a dance at your club, need new ideas? Come this evening at 7 o'clock to Robinson Gymnasium.

What are you going to do with your children this summer? Or that gang that hangs out in the backyard with your son or daughter? Sure, you'd like to help them.

Ideas, and more ideas, are yours for the asking at the daily recreation classes this week at the University of Kansas. You are invited. Mrs. Anne Livingston, of the National Recreation Association of New York City, is here to lead the classes. What about your next party? Got any ideas? At the Recreation Training Institute you will find plenty of new, stimulating games, musical mixers, brain teasers and quizzes.

Housewives, will you help -- the Y.W., 4H Clubs, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and summer recreation program need you. Youth is our most priceless asset. One hour a day from you is cheap insurance for Lawrence's welfare. Mrs. Anne Livingston, of the National Recreation Association of New York City, is leading fun classes at the University of Kansas every evening this week from 7 to 10 p.m. in Robinson Gymnasium.

Come - have fun - learn new games - new party ideas, square dances, puzzles, playground activities, and help Lawrence build strong bodies and minds for future.
