

4.

Are you in charge of your church's recreation? Are you on that planning committee for the spring social? What about your young people's groups? Need any new ideas on parties, games, songs, for that next get-together at the church - social hall? Mrs. Anne Livingston, of the National Recreation Association of New York City, is in charge of the Recreation Training Institute at the University of Kansas this week. Join the other leaders - have fun - and help your church's recreation program. Remember, this evening from 7 to 10 p.m. in Robinson Gymnasium.

5.

Will you help build a happier Lawrence? Do you have some spare time to help Y.W. - Y.M. - 4H Clubs - your own family or neighborhood - your church group - your PTA - or summer recreation playground? Join Mrs. Anne Livingston's fun classes at the University of Kansas this week. Have you been investing in the happiness of youth? Dividends are paid daily. New ideas, programs, games, all sorts of recreation material at the Wartime Recreation Training Institute in Robinson Gymnasium every evening this week from 7 to 10 p.m.

6.

Gay parties for lively people - and who in Lawrence isn't lively? Games for all ages, creative games, active games, games for small spaces, quiet games, games for hot weather and rainy days - musical mixers, folk games, stunt songs - all this at the Recreation Training Institute at the University of Kansas each evening this week. Fun sessions are held from 7 to 10 p.m. in Robinson Gymnasium by Mrs. Anne Livingston of the National Recreation Association of New York City. Would you like to help your family, your PTA group, church, neighborhood, the Y.M. - Y.W., Boy and Girl Scouts, Campfire girls, 4H Clubs, or the summer recreation program of your city? Get the latest materials in recreation leadership by actually playing with other leaders this evening in Robinson Gymnasium. We'll look for you at 7 o'clock.