Captain I. W. Cahoon,
510 Porter Building,
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Captain Cahoon:

I am very happy to recommend to you Frank W. Mandeville, of Lowe & Campbell, of Kansas City.

I have known Mr. Mandeville for over eighteen years and have found him to be a most dependable, loyal and efficient young man.
I knew him when he was a football, basketball and track star at the University of Kansas in 1917. I came to the University as Director of Athletics in 1919. It was my pleasure to coach him on the varsity football team as well as the varsity basketball team. He was a great athlete, responsive and versatile.

Since his graduation I have followed him as coach at Hays Teachers College and during his long tenure with Lowe & Campbell in Kansas City. He is a man of fine family, and his loyalty and ability are unquestioned. He has a sterling character, he is a man of no bad habits, and he has the ability to make hosts of friends in all walks of life.

I am glad to recommend him to you without reservation or evasion.

Very sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education, Varsity Basketball Coach.
