

I am very happy to recommend Mr. Raport as being possessed of highly favorable qualifications required of a teacher. He is at present an instructor in our department, and has the very high regard of his fellow teachers as well as the students with whom he comes into contact.

His scholarship is excellent, his teaching ability outstanding, and his personality most pleasing. He is serious and conscientious in his work, willing to cooperate with his superiors, and possessed of fine qualities of initiative and leadership.