

Miss Andrews, whose minor is in public school music, is one of the outstanding women majors in physical education. She makes a very pleasing appearance, her social qualities are of the highest, she is intelligent in social and professional matters. She handles her classes with dignity and poise. I am very happy to recommend her whole-heartedly.